THE PRIMARY.—The city democratic committee met last night and completed all arrangements for holding their primary on Tuesday next to nominate candidates for the offices of Commonwealth's Attorney, City Sergeant, Magistrates and Constables and to elect delegates to the State convention.

The ticket, bearing all the names of the candidates, was arranged and ordered to be published. It will be found in another column of the GAZETTE. It was decided that all known democrats and those who pledge themselves to vote the democratic ticket at the presidential election should be entitled to vote at the primary. It will be seen that Commonwealth's Attorney Marbury and City Sergeant Smith have no opposition, nor does there appear to be any particular scramble for the offices of magistrate or constable. There will be a general change in the city committee, however, many of the old members retiring, having, as they say, "had enough." For the honor of being delegates to the State convention there is a multiplicity of candidates and from the array of talent the voters will have no trouble in making up a ticket. The disposition to select suitable men as delegates irrespective of their presidential preferences still seems to prevail and it now looks like the contest between the many candidates will be a friendly one and without any bitterness or partisan feeling. At the primary on Tuesday the polls will be held at the usual voting places and will be kept open from 7 a. m. till 7 p. m. The regular democratic judges and clerks of election will conduct the primary.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Henrietta McGill, of Leesburg, who has been spending the last month in this city with friends, this evening returned to her home, after a very pleasant visit.

R. Rev. Bishop A. M. Randolph is in the city the guest of Capt. Henry Bryant.

Cards are out for the marriage, on the 27th inst., of Mr. James E. Meuding, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Theresa, daughter of Mr. Michael Fannon, of this city.

Major H. W. Newby, formerly of this city, has been appointed assistant engineer of Roanoke.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Woodson have returned to their home in Franklin, Va.

The Fairfax Herald says: "Miss Maggie Thomas gave a very delightful card party Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. Ruth Yeaton Stuart, who is visiting in this village."

Mr. Frank F. Marbury of the R. & D. R. R. at Atlanta, is in the city on a short visit.

Mr. A. J. Groves, jr., and Miss J. Lawler were married on Thursday night at the Baptist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McCracken, of Wilmington, Del., are visiting the Misses Dwyer on Queen street.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A republican mass meeting was held last night at Odd Fellows' Hall, south Columbus street, under the auspices of the city republican committee. Newton Fant was elected chairman of the meeting and Wash. Jackson secretary. The object of the meeting was to reconcile the differences in the party in the city. The meeting was addressed by Mr. L. W. Corbett, chairman of the city committee, J. H. Harris, Daniel Lomax, of Prince William county, R. L. Mitchell and others. The freest latitude was allowed, and numerous questions were asked the speakers. Some confusion was caused by the conduct of a few disorderly persons in the crowd, but the results of the meeting, which was numerously attended, were entirely satisfactory to the committee.

MISS JOSEPHINE CAMERON and her company of leading artists will appear at the Opera House, Tuesday and Wednesday nights in "Forget-Me-Not" and "East Lynne." The Baltimore American in speaking of Miss Cameron and her company says: "Miss Josephine Cameron, supported by an excellent company, appeared last night in the great London success, 'Forget-Me-Not.' The play is a delightful one. It bristles with intrigue and passion, and calls for dramatic talent of the highest order. The part of 'Forget-Me-Not' requires an actress of ability to present the scenes in a manner that will elicit the sympathy of the audience. Her lines are difficult for any one but a clever actress to master."

CHANGE OF SCHEDULES.—The following change in the Pennsylvania Railroad schedule will go into effect Sunday, the 24th, inst., at 11:29 p. m.: Train No. 33, leaving Washington 7:20 a. m. daily for New York will leave at same hour daily, except Sunday. Train No. 14 from the South will leave Washington for New York 12:15 p. m. daily, instead of 1:45 p. m. as heretofore.

On and after Sunday, April 24th, the W. & O. train leaving Washington at 6 p. m., will be discontinued on Sunday, and the train leaving Washington, at 4:35 p. m. will run to Round Hill daily.

CHANGE OF AGENTS.—J. T. Preston, late agent of the R. & D. railway at Franklin Junction, has been put in charge of the Warrenton depot. Mr. Moses Green, who is still retained in the office, has many influential friends, and hopes for a position on the line.

APPOINTMENTS.—The city electoral board has appointed Mr. O. B. Hopkins a judge of election in the Third ward, and Mr. J. E. Pierpont commissioner of election in same ward. These appointments fill vacancies caused by the death of Mr. S. K. Field.

SERMON TO ODD FELLOWS.—Potomac and Sargent Lodges of Odd Fellows will attend the Baptist Church to-morrow night in a body, where a sermon on Odd Fellowship will be delivered by Rev. Mr. Butler.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and cool till about 2 o'clock, when it became clear. There were five prisoners and one loiterer at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Andrew Lomax, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

David Green, permitting gambling in his house, Sam Ford, Wilbur Williams and Abs. Bryant, all for gambling, were fined $5 each.

Arthur Manlin, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $2.50.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES.—Right Rev. A. M. Randolph, of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, last night preached and confirmed a class of 15 at Grace Church. The Bishop took for his text "Love is the fulfilling of the law," and his sermon was most instructive and eloquent and was listened to with profound attention. To-morrow Bishop Randolph will hold confirmation services at St. Paul's Church in the morning and at Christ Church at night.

HOR.—The Assembly last night gave a delightful after-Easter hop at McBurney's Hall, which was largely attended. Many strangers were present. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and the ladies' costumes were unusually handsome. Dorch's band furnished the music and dancing was kept up till a late hour. The hop was voted one of the pleasantest affairs of the season.

THE A. L. I.—At the last meeting of the Alexandria Light Infantry five new members were elected and Capt. Mushbach is now endeavoring to recruit the company up to a membership of 100 and is meeting with much encouragement. The company has been invited to take part in the parade on the occasion of the unveiling of the monument to Gen. A. P. Hill in Richmond on May 30th.

RAID ON GAMBLERS.—The police last night raided a house near the corner of Henry and Cameron streets, occupied by David Green, and in which Sam Ford, Wilbur Williams and Abs. Bryant were caught gambling. All the parties were marched to the station house, where this morning they were fined $5 each.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. J. N. Harper has sold to Pauline N. Hogan, of Stafford, a lot on Fairfax street between Gibbon and Franklin.

Mrs. E. B. Hoff has sold to Mr. A. Houck a lot on the southeast corner of Patrick and Prince streets.

THE MARKET to-day was not so well attended by country people as is usual at this season of the year, but there was a fair supply of country produce. Prices generally were unchanged, though butter was lower and fresh fish sold higher than last week.

FISH.—Since yesterday about 500 shad and 50,000 herring have arrived at Fish-tows. Shad sold at $18.25 per hundred and herring at $5.00 per hundred.

The corner stone of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Round Hill will be laid on Wednesday next at 11 o'clock.

A number of test piles have been driven across the mouth of Hunting creek where the bridge for the electric railway will be built.

After almost a week of cool, rainy weather the sun rose clear this morning and the day has been alternately bright and cloudy, but no rain.

Rev. H. M. Wharton, D. D., will lecture next Tuesday night at the First Baptist Church. The advertisement appears in another column.

The officers of the High Tent of Rebabites of North America last night visited Potomac Tent, of this city. During the evening several interesting addresses were made and refreshments were served by Potomac Tent.

The County School Board met to-day and decided to submit for the approval of the County Court the following levy for school purposes: Jefferson district 20 cents, Arlington 25 cents and Washington 45 cents on the $100. Mr. E. T. Sleson was directed to prepare plans for a new school house for Jefferson district.

A little scrimmage occurred last night near the corner of King and Washington streets between two young men, one a resident of this city and the other of Baltimore, who were attending a social party in the neighborhood. The affair, which attracted quite a crowd and caused much comment, ended in the Baltimorean being discomfited.

The citizens' committee of Fairfax met the Board of Supervisors of that county to-day, when a satisfactory bond for making the approaches to the bridge over Cameron run, at Potomac, was executed. The contract for the bridge has been awarded to Mr. J. R. Tillett, of Manassas, and calls for its completion in August.

Abc Deulias, colored, who a few days since was committed to jail by Mr. J. H. Greene for disorderly conduct, was yesterday given a new trial, when on the promise to leave the city he was discharged on the further condition that he would pay a fine of $10.00, but being unable to raise the money he was again committed.

The regulars of Fairfax held district meetings to-day to elect delegates to the county convention which meets at the Court House on Monday. It is said that Capt. F. Beattie will be made county chairman in place of Mr. E. B. Farr, who wishes to retire.

The Columbia S. F. E. Co. to-day received from Anderson & Jones, New York, four dozen complete firemen's outfits, consisting of hats, shirts, boots, &c. They are very handsome.

Alexandria Infirmary.

Miss Davison having tendered to the Board of Managers of the Alexandria Infirmary her resignation as matron of the institution, a special meeting was called on April 9 to consider the matter.

The acceptance of the resignation, designed to take effect in September next, met with a unanimous and most decided negative. A resolution was passed to that effect, and a committee appointed to wait upon Miss Davison and urge her to reconsider her decision.

A letter from an absent member of the board was read, which so fully expressed the opinion of every member of the board, that we are compelled to copy a portion of it, that the citizens of Alexandria and the friends of the institution may understand the regard and affection in which Miss Davison is held by us; and, on deep regret at her determination and our sense of the loss to the infirmary should she carry out her intention.

"Miss Davison has shown most wonderful efficiency in every department she has filled, in the eleven years she has been in charge of the institution, and these have been more varied than usually fall to the share of one woman.

"As matron and housekeeper her economy has been unsurpassed, while the extreme neatness of every part of the large building has been frequently remarked upon by visitors as something marvelous.

"As nurse, every inmate has shared her tender and loving care. In the operating room the skill her skill has been apparent; no surgeon was more successful in dressing a wound; she has been equal to every occasion. Standing by, and aiding in all surgical cases with a firmness and courage which excited high aspirations to minister to the needs and soothe the sufferings of all alike, feeling that whether brought from the abodes of poverty and degradation, or from homes of culture and refinement, they had equal claims on her sympathies and service.

"Into every sick chamber her presence has brought sunshine, cheer and comfort; everywhere she has been the ready helper, the gentle nurse, the friend to be relied on.

"We wish that all could realize what the loss will be to the Alexandria Infirmary—the one noble charity of our city—if deprived of Miss Davison's services, so long and so faithfully rendered.

"It is only in reliance on Him, who 'took upon Himself our infirmities and bore our sickness,' and, who 'sits in the days of His tribulation,' that we can look into the future with any degree of courage or hope."

Miss Davison, when interviewed by the committee, declined to reconsider her decision, but the managers are not yet ready to accept it as final, and still indulge the hope she may be induced to withdraw her resignation.
